

10 July 2016 ~ 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The first reading recounts Moses pointing out to the people of Israel how near the Lord is to them, and that his commandments have been written upon their hearts. Paul describes Jesus in the Letter to the Colossians as the revelation of God in human form. Today's Gospel recalls the parable of the Good Samaritan. While God is mysterious, the laws of God – and what the Lord wants of us – are easy to see and understand. For God has written his law in our hearts, and has revealed to us who he is through Jesus. Our God also lets us know one of the easiest ways to please him: loving him with our whole being, and loving and serving our neighbor.
