March 21 Pope Francis reminds us that "The warming caused by huge consumption on the part of some rich countries has repercussions on the poorest areas of the world" (Laudato Si' , 51). How could we consume or use less?	March 22 Simple actions can reduce pollution and global warming. During Lent, try to avoid single-use plastics and instead buy things in bulk.	March 23 World Water Day Give 25¢ for every tap you turn on today (whether at home, in school or at work).	24 mars If your community was threatened by the arrival of a polluting company, how would you defend your rights?	March 25 Do you know Víctor Vásquez? This Lenca Indigenous leader was imprisoned in Honduras for defending his ancestral territory against corporations. Watch to learn more.	March 26 Give $2 to support Development and Peace's partners like Caritas Choluteca in Honduras, who help communities defend their rights.	March 7 Could you use less disposable packaging? Give 25¢ for each package in your trash can and 10¢ for each package in your recycling bin.

March 20 Third Sunday of Lent Say a prayer for the activists who are threatened and even imprisoned for insisting on the right to a healthy environment.	April 6 Pray that each and every one of us can live in dignity, peace and security.	April 7 When it comes to putting people and planet first, every gesture counts. Help us to spread solidarity!	April 8 Imagine having to leave your home and move because pollution, conflict or climate change is making life impossible. Our partner DPA helped a Cambodian community avoid that fate when their river began running out of fish.	April 9 For your next birthday, instead of gifts, ask for donations to Development and Peace, in solidarity with our sisters and brothers in the Global South.	March 27 Fourth Sunday of Lent Pray for the chance to share beauty and joy rather than pollution and destruction.	March 8 International Women's Day Around the world, girls and women are fighting to protect the environment and our future. Have you heard of Berta Cáceres, Autumn Peltier or Medha Patkar?
