Churches can't survive without volunteers. Many volunteers have worked tirelessly in their ministries and need your support and assistance. We need to boost our volunteer base to prevent burnout of current volunteers and to help build up our ministries. Can you help?

Please know you will have support and direction in any area you volunteer in. Some volunteer positions are on a schedule, but we are happy to receive your help in whatever level of commitment you are able to give! Please fill in your contact details and the appropriate person will contact you to give you more information on your chosen area/s.
