PRO-CATHEDRAL OF THE ASSUMPTION

480 McIntyre Street West - North Bay, Ontario - P1B 2Z4

Welcome to Your Father's House!

Jeremiah prophesies that the Lord will bring back his people from the land to which they were exiled. The author of Hebrews explains that just as the high priest can act as such only if he has been called by God to do so, so also Christ acts as our high priest because God has appointed him to do so. In the Gospel, Jesus restores the sight of Bartimaeus. In today's Gospel, Jesus asks Bartimaeus, What do you want me to do for you? Bartimaeus wanted his sight, and the Lord granted it. Bartimaeus then followed him on the way. As we encounter the Lord in the Eucharist, let us ask him for the courage to not only ask him for what we need but to follow him on the way when he answers.

Our Parish Mission Statement

We, the members of the Pro-Cathedral of the Assumption community, believe that we have been called through Baptism to live the Good News of Jesus Christ under the patronage of Mary, our Mother.

Mass for the Bereaved & The Book of Life

Every year we traditionally celebrate All Souls Day - a way of remembering and celebrating the lives of all those who have died.

This year, our celebration will be held at the 11:00 am mass on Sunday, November 3.

Everyone is welcome to attend this mass and we extend a special invitation to those who have lost a loved one in the last year.

Each year at this time we also update "The Book of Life," our parish book that records the names of our deceased loved ones. The names of all those who have died from our parish during the past year (01 November 2023—30 October 2024) are recorded on the front page. For anyone who would like to add the name of their deceased loved one, please contact the parish office.

Ministers of the Eucharist for Home Visitation

The Pro-Cathedral parish is committed to making sure that an encounter with the parish is an encounter with Christ. There are those who find themselves unable to attend Mass who can no longer gather to celebrate for the Eucharist. Ministers are called to be instruments of Christ's presence to them by bringing the Eucharist to their home.

Potential Ministers should live according to the law of Church; be active and registered members of the parish; and must be fully initiated Catholics in good standing. Ministers are formed and trained by our coordinator and will be fully screened in accordance with diocesan policies.

If you are interested in serving in this ministry, we would love to speak with you. Please call the parish office for more information.

Bartimaeus went on to follow Jesus after he was healed. Like Bartimaeus, when we put our faith in Jesus and pursue Him, we are invited to follow Him. Jesus often invited those he encountered to follow Him.

The same invitation is open to us today. Faith helps us choose daily to follow Jesus and not be led astray.

The next weekend a parishioner would like to anonymously match the Roof Loose Collection is November 17.

Please be generous as your donations will be matched up to $1,000 - thank you!

The challenge is to match the loose collection only - not donations for which people receive credit so please be generous with your loose donations. We take pennies too!

Parish Pastoral Council - It's time again to elect new members to our Parish Pastoral Council.

Next Sunday, November 3, nominations will close.

The purpose of the PPC is to foster pastoral activity in the parish and support the Pastor in his ministry.

The council is made of five ex-officio members and five elected members. The ex-officio positions are: Pastor, and a representative from the Permanent Ministers, Knights of Columbus, Catholic Women's League, and Finance Committee.

The term of the five elected members is three years, renewable once. The Council meets four times a year.

Those who qualify to be a member of the PPC are to be baptized Catholics or received into the church, members of the parish and in good standing with the community.

If you know of anyone who could be of assistance on the PPC, please complete a nomination form—located on the bookcases in the church behind the last pews.

A biography of the candidates will be published and an election will be held during Sunday Masses November 23/24 on the Feast of Christ the King.

Catholic Community Volunteers for Hospital Ministry

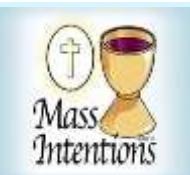

The availability of the Eucharist to patients is on Wednesday, Friday and Sundays. In order to receive Eucharist, a patient must be identified as Catholic and the patient or family member must authorize the visitation of a volunteer.

Mother Marie-Léonie Paradis (1840–1912)

Among the 14 people who became the Catholic Church's newest saints last Sunday is Canadian sister Blessed Marie-Léonie Paradis founded the Little Sisters of the Holy Family. Born Virginie Alodie in the Acadian region of Quebec, the blessed founded her institute, whose purpose was to collaborate with and support the religious of Holy Cross in educational work, in 1880 in New Brunswick.

Before founding her religious order, Paradis also spent eight years in New York serving in the St. Vincent de Paul Orphanage in the 1860s before moving to Indiana in 1870 to teach French and needlework at St. Mary's Academy.

At the request of the bishop of Montreal, Paradis founded the Little Sisters in 1880. An important part of the spirituality and charism of the order is support for priests through both intense and constant prayer, but also through taking care of the cooking at laundry in seminaries and rectories in “humble and joyful service” in imitation of “Christ the Servant” who washed the feet of his disciples.

Today her sisters work in over 200 institutions of education and evangelization in Canada, the United States, Italy, Brazil, Haiti, Chile, Honduras, and Guatemala.

Pope John Paul II called Paradis the “humble among the humble” as he beatified her during his visit to Montreal in 1984, the first beatification to take place on Canadian soil.

“She was not afraid of the different forms of manual work, which are the burden that falls to so many people today, while it was held in honor in the Holy Family, in the very life of Jesus in Nazareth. There she saw the will of God for her life. With the sacrifices inherent in this work, but offered out of love, she knew a profound joy and peace,” John Paul II said.

“She knew she was referring to the fundamental attitude of Christ, ‘who came not to be served, but to serve.’ She was completely pervaded by the greatness of the Eucharist: This is one of the secrets of her spiritual motivations,” he added.

The miracle attributed to Paradis’ intercession involved the healing of a newborn baby girl who suffered from “prolonged perinatal asphyxia with multi-organ failure and encephalopathy” during her birth in 1986 at a hospital in Saint-Jean-sur-Richelieu, Canada, according to the Vatican.
