Welcome to Your Father's House!

offer. God's care for us knows no bounds, and the goodness we experience here is but a taste of what is to come.

In the first reading, Isaiah speaks of God's care for Zion, and his promise of restoration and rejoicing. Zion will be like a cherished bride. In the second reading, Paul writes of the same Spirit producing different individual gifts. In the Gospel, Jesus attends a wedding feast at Cana and the wine [runs] short. He instructs the servers to fill jars with water, and when the water is drawn out to be tasted, it had become wine. It is comforting to know that, within the kingdom of God, all will be well in the end. Isaiah tells us of God's promise to Zion – which we know to be fulfilled in his Son, Jesus. And Jesus, whose ministry on earth was visible and transformative, takes care to ensure that the wedding feast is not spoiled while demonstrating that what he offers us is superior to anything the world may

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity January 18—25

This universal week of prayer encourages Christians of all denominations to meet, to participate in various liturgical and other community activities, and to pray together that all may be one, as Christ desires.

Gracious God, we come before You seeking the unity of the Spirit and the bond of peace within our church community. We pray that Your love and presence will be evident in our interactions and decision-making. Help us to overcome any divisions and work together harmoniously as one body in Christ. May our efforts reflect Your grace and unity, and may we be a shining example of Your love to those around us. Guide us in maintaining peace and harmony in our church, and let Your Spirit lead us in all things. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Please pre-register your child now and correspondence will be sent to you at a later date regarding preparation gatherings. The on-line registration form can be found on our website under SACRAMENTS under both Eucharist and Reconciliation. The forms have the option to register for one or both of the sacraments and once completed, they can be emailed to: office@procathedral.ca

Children who have already celebrated Baptism are welcome to register. To register for First Communion, children should be baptized and have already celebrated First Confession.
